LCA Track for Executives and Sustainability Professionals

LCAXVI

September 27 -29, 2016

Pre-Conference Workshops September 26, 2016

Charleston, SC

New to LCA? This special track for executives, managers or sustainability professionals is designed to guide you through the process of incorporating LCA into your company's business practices. You will learn the value that LCA can bring to your sustainability initiatives as the cornerstone for making more sustainable products and services. Topics include the different ways that you can use LCA, strategies to work with suppliers and the value chain to gather data and communication approaches to leverage your findings and educate your consumers.
